Setting

Nestled in the heart of the Peak District, courses and workshops take place at our World Of Bushcraft Centre on the Haddon Hall estate in the village of Rowsley.

The centre allows a covered warm space to undertake both short and long duration workshops. Inside you will find an inspirational craft area showcasing some of the skills of the teams and collections from our expeditions. There is also the opportunity to browse the equipment that is sold online, should you wish to trial an axe, hold that knife, or pull on that Harris Tweed Bush shirt. There is free tea and coffee available on tap.

Under no circumstances should you go to Haddon Hall as this is a private residence for Lord and Lady Edward Manners. The venue is situated over 2 miles away from their home, so please follow these directions carefully. If you need any assistance phone 01234 351006.
